Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

"Marching Toward Excellence"

One of the biggest highlights of the 2007-08 school year was being named "One of America's Best High Schools" by US News and World Report. This award was given based on improvement statistics alone. It was not solicited in any manner, and it was great to be selected. All of the hard work of our teachers, students, and staff brought local, state, and national recognition to Calhoun County High School. We are all proud of this honor!

The school met Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) under the No Child Left Behind Act by meeting all 13 objectives for two consecutive years. The school received an absolute rating of Good on the State Report Card and an Improvement Rating of Average. Our achievements were celebrated by our faculty, staff, students, and community.

Faculty members revised and enhanced curriculum guides for every subject offered at Calhoun County High School. This work is a part of the continuous effort of teachers at CCHS to improve teaching and learning. Students followed a seven period class schedule in 2007-08. Students in the Freshman Academy remained grouped by gender for core content instruction. Over 23 percent of graduating seniors qualified as Life Scholars, three students earned Palmetto Fellow Awards, and two received Wendy's Heisman Scholarships.

Our goal is for all CCHS students to "continue the march" toward academic and athletic excellence. An Artist in Residence assisted students in painting Media Center furniture with lively colors, and the school was awarded a Lowe's grant to provide a Parent Center. The JROTC Program passed a formal military review this year and maintained its designation as an Honor Unit with Distinction. The Boys' Basketball team won its third consecutive Class A State championship, and the football team advanced to the state playoffs.

We are expanding our partnerships with the community and local colleges so that our students are offered the best opportunities to prepare for their futures. Our partnerships contributed to our overall success in 2007-08. We are committed to continuous improvement.

Ms. Karen Brophy, School Improvement Council Chair
Mrs. Sheridan Hamilton, Principal
